USER MANUAL FOR USER

1. Language Map Procedure

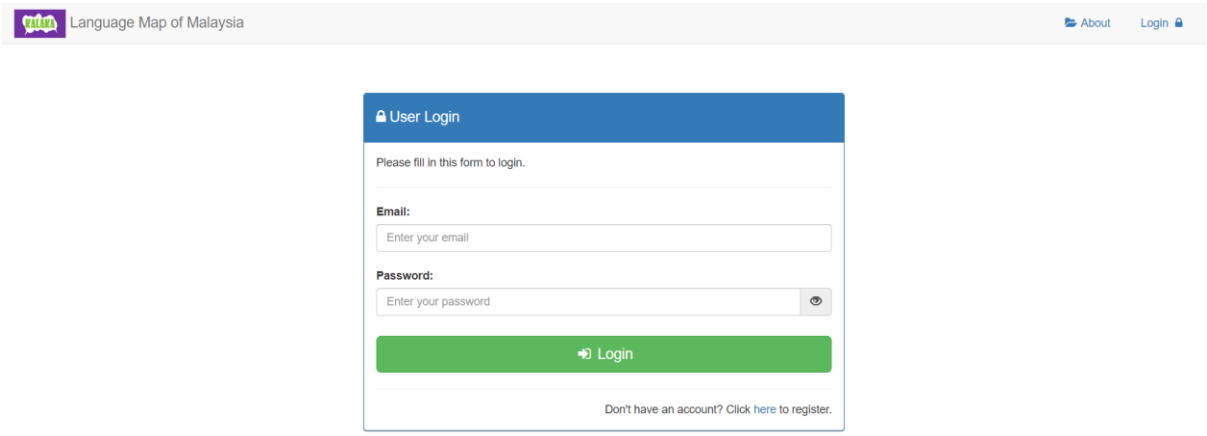

- To play the speech audios on the map, at first, user has to click on the markers on the map to pop up a window that will display the speech audios and details.
- After clicking on the marker, the audios will load instantly for playing.
- User may click on the play button to play the audio and pause button to stop playing the audio.
- Close the window by clicking on the “x” button or just click on the other markers.
- The user can also input locations or addresses in the Search box above the location map, where the map will the zoom to the specific location.
- Clicking on the “About” button will redirect the user to the About Us page, where the user can learn about the system in detail.
- Clicking on the “Language Statistics” will redirect the user to the Language Statistics page, where the user can view the statistics of audio files for each language in each year.
- Clicking on “Audios” will take the user to the Public Speech page, where a data table is displayed for all the audio files set as public and viewable in the Language Map.
- To sign up as a new user, the user must click on the “Sign Up” button to complete the user registration.
- To login to the system, the user must click on the login button to gain access into the system.

2. User Registration Procedure

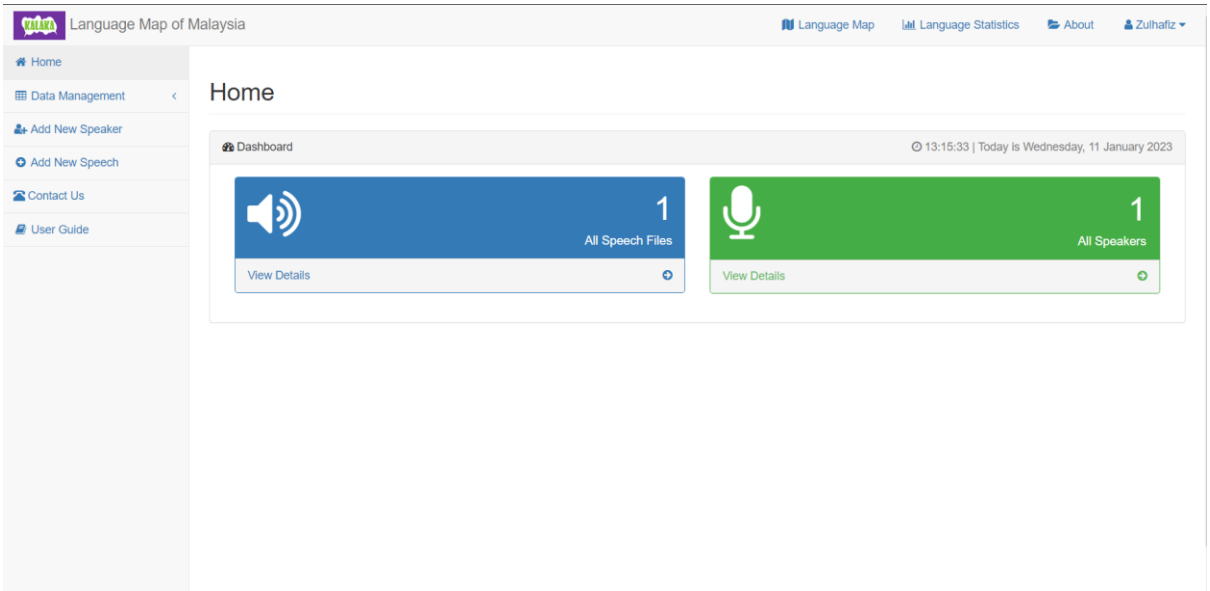

- Clicking on the logo of the system will redirect the user back to the page of the language map.
- To register as a new user, user must enter their full name, email that is available to receive email, and the password.
- Next, click on the “Sign Up” button. A few seconds later, the user will be redirected to the login page and logged into the system automatically.
- Once the user is logged into the system, the user has been registered as a new user.

3. User Login Procedure

- User must enter the email and password that have been registered correctly
- Next, click on “Login” button to access into the system.

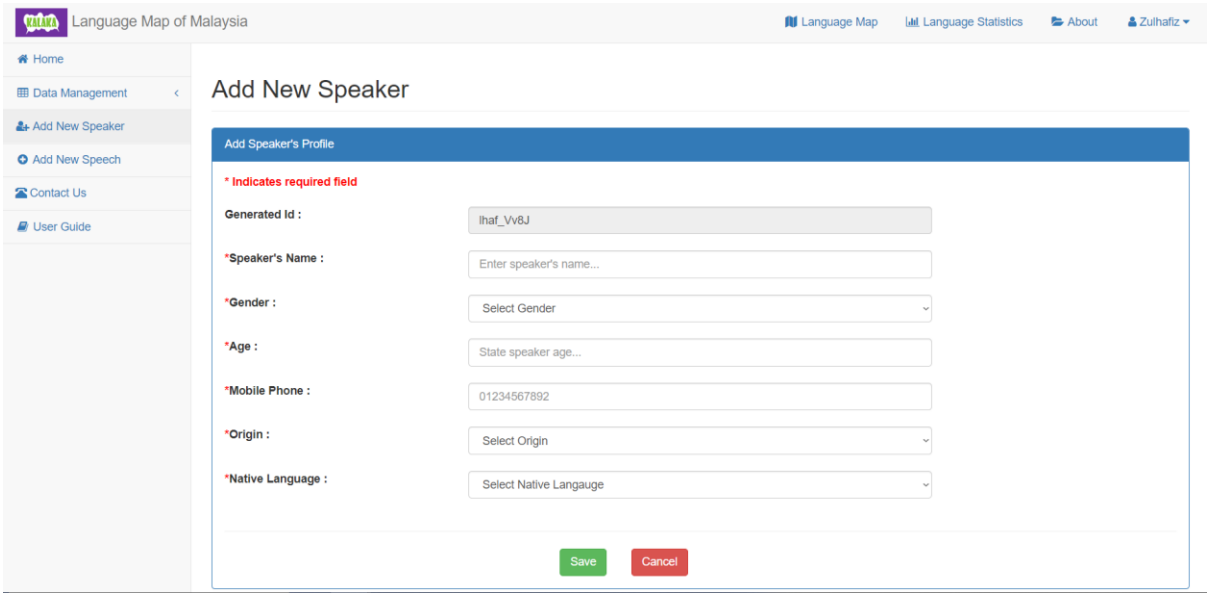

4. User Dashboard Procedure

- To view the details of the data, user can click on the "View Details" in the dashboard or just click on the "Data Management" for "Speech Data" and "Speaker Profile" at the side bar.
- To add new speaker, just click on "Add New Speaker" at the side bar
- To add new speech, user have to click on "Add New Speech" at the side bar.
- User may click on "Contact Us" to report problems while accessing the system.
- To view the language map, the user can click on the "Language Map" button on the top or simple click on the logo of the system.
- To know more about the system, simply click on the "About" button.
- To view user profile, user has to click on the name shown on the top at the right hand side, and click on "My Profile". After that, the user will navigate to the User Profile page.

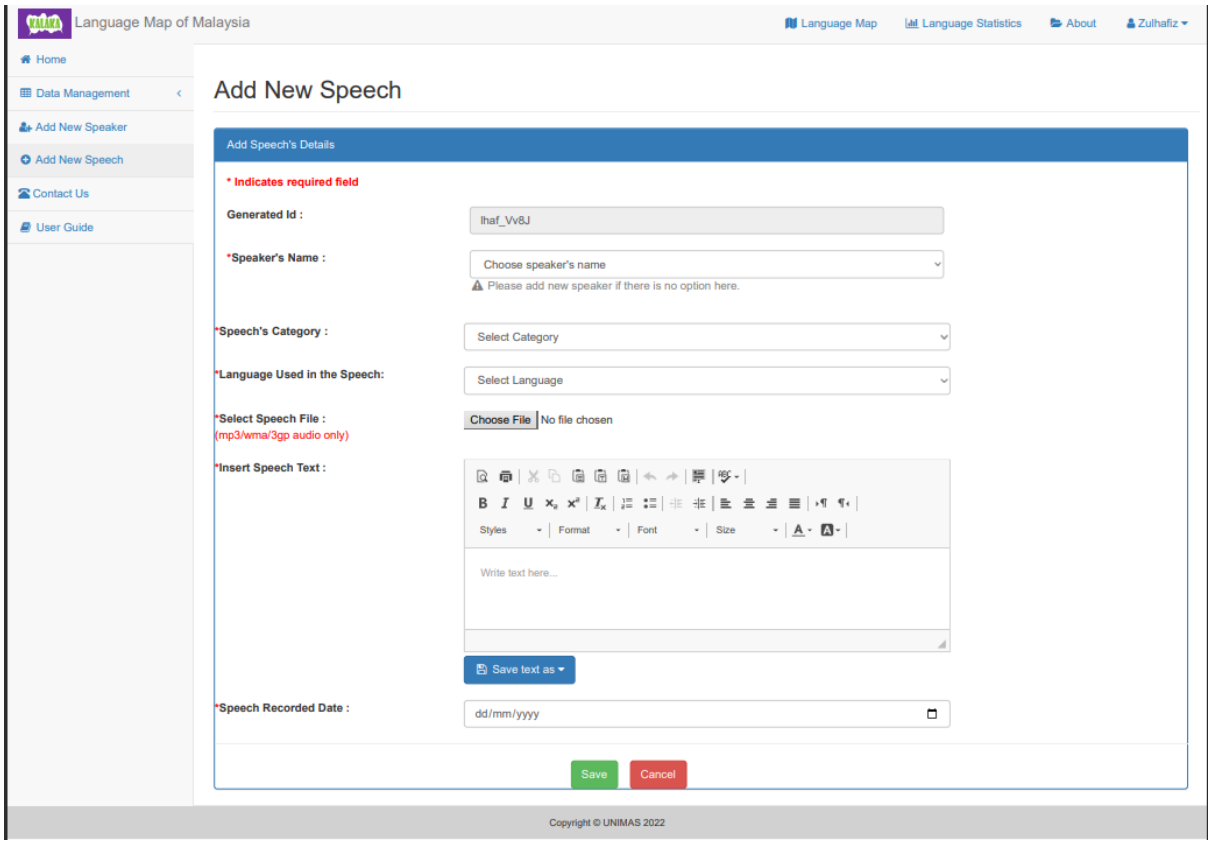

*Note: User must add new speaker first before adding new speech in the system.

5. Add New Speaker Procedure

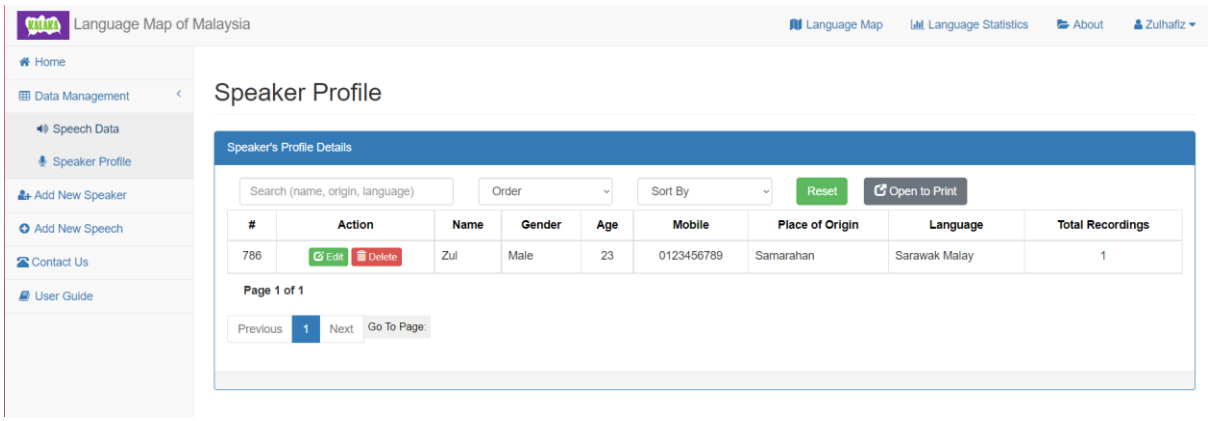

- User must full in all the available fields to save the data completely.
- After all the fields are filled, click on the “Save” button.
- Once saving is done, the user will be redirected to the speaker’s profile data management to view the saved data.
- The user can cancel all the changes made by clicking on the “Cancel” button.

6. Add New Speech Procedure

- In this page, the user must fill in all the available fields to save the data completely.
- After all the fields are filled, click on “Save” button to save all the data into the database.
- After saving is done, the user will be redirected to the speech data management page to view the saved data.

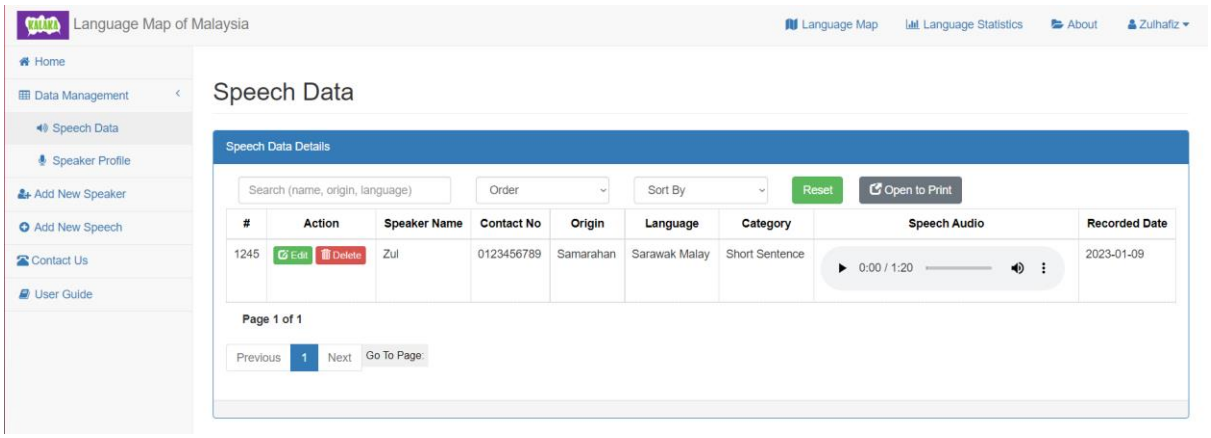

7. Speaker's Profile Management Procedure

- To edit the data, user may click on the "Edit" button and it will pop up a form with the details.
- After done editing the data, click on "Update" button to save the updates into the database.
- To cancel all the updates, user may click on "Cancel" button.
- To delete the data, just click on the "Delete" button. Once the deletion is confirmed, the data selected will be deleted from the database.
- User can enter the keyword in the search field to find the desired information of the data.
- The user can also change the data to be ordered in ascending or descending order by using the "Order" dropdown.
- The user can also sort the data by chosen column by using the "Sort By" dropdown.
- To reset the data arrangements, simple click on the "Reset" button.

*Note: Make sure all the fields have been filled before saving the updates.

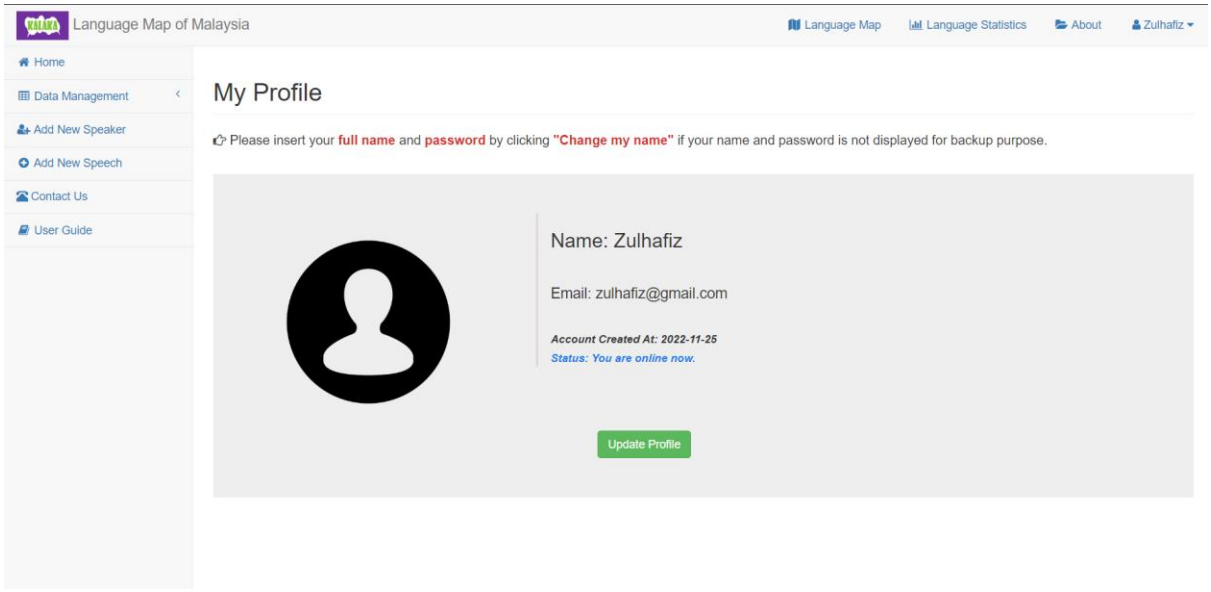

8. Speech Data Management Procedure

- To play the speech audio, user can click on the play button to listen to the speech.
- The user can adjust the volume during playback of the audio by clicking on the volume button.
- To edit the data, the user must click on the “Edit” button to edit the details of the data and it will pop up a form with the details.
- After editing the data, the user must click on the “Update” button to save the updates into the database.
- To cancel all the updates, the user may click on the “Cancel” button.
- To delete the data, just click on the “Delete” button. Once the deletion is confirmed, the data selected will be deleted from the database.
- User can enter the keyword in the search field to find the desired information of the data.
- The user can also change the data to be ordered in ascending or descending order by using the “Order” dropdown.
- The user can also sort the data by chosen column by using the “Sort By” dropdown.
- To reset the data arrangements, simple click on the “Reset” button.

*Note: Make sure all the fields have been filled before saving the updates.

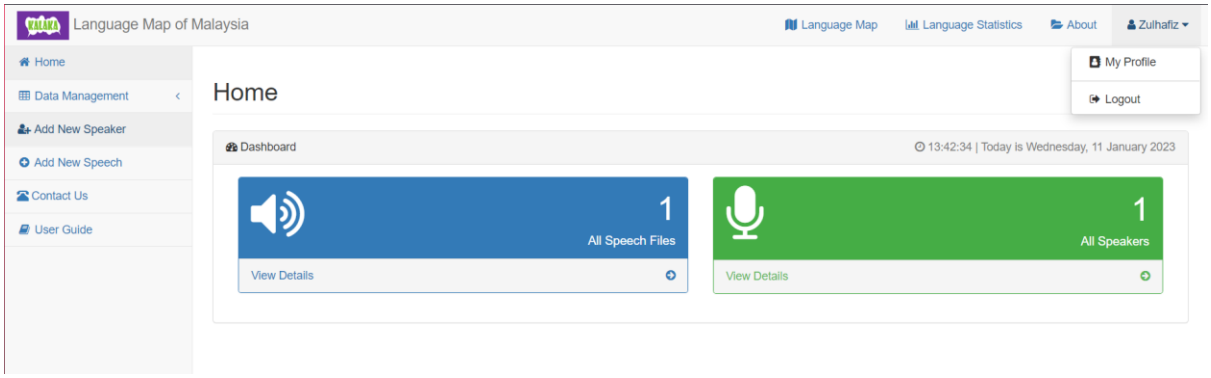

9. Edit User Profile Procedure

- To edit the profile of own user account, click on the “Update Profile” button and it will pop up a form with the details. After done editing the data, click on “Update” button and the data will be updated into the database.
- User can click on “Cancel” button to cancel the updates.

*Note: Make sure all the fields have been filled before saving the updates.

10. Logout Procedure

- To logout from the system, user may click on the “Logout” button.